SWELL PICTURE WILL BE SHOWN

A GREAT MORAL PICTURE AT THE BUTLER THEATER FOR TONIGHT.

The greatest moral and educational picture ever shown will be projected tonight, "In the Grip of Alcohol." A portrayal of the French Pathe of the ravages of alcohol upon the human system when once within its grip. "Love Decides," Lubin drama in which the call of duty rose above that of infatuation. This story deals with the problem arising in every day life and a moral can be drawn, "John Brown's Heir," Edison, This is a real live comedy. Through mixing two newspaper accounts the relatives of John Brown, who had just "struck it rich," believed that he was at the point of death and they all suddenly become very fond of him, indeed.

By request 'Baby Josephine" will be heard in her Dutch song and also do her Dutch wooden-shoe the morning of December 20, he so bride, a Brookline heiress, horribly mutilated himself that his life hung in the balance for some hours and was saved only by an operation.

It is said to have been at that time that Richeson first insisted upon confessing.

Even while bleeding from his wounds, he is said to have clung to his counsel, William A. Morse, and pleaded to be allowed to te him the whole story.
